

ENTERTAINING THE THEATREGOERS IN BROADWAY'S LEADING PRODUCTIONS

Miss Lucille Chalfonte, featured in the fourth annual "Greenwich Village Follies" at the Shubert.

Miss Elise Lombard, a pirate bold in "The Gingham Girl" at the Earl Carroll.

Edwin Bower Hesser.

Miss Elva Pomfret, a youthful dancer, in "Orange Blossoms" at the Fulton.

Miss Florence Reed, starring in "East of Suez," the new play at the Eltinge.

Miss Audrey Hart in Avery Hopwood's new play, "Why Men Leave Home," at the Morosco.

Harry Beresford, "The Old Soak" in the play of the same name at the Plymouth.

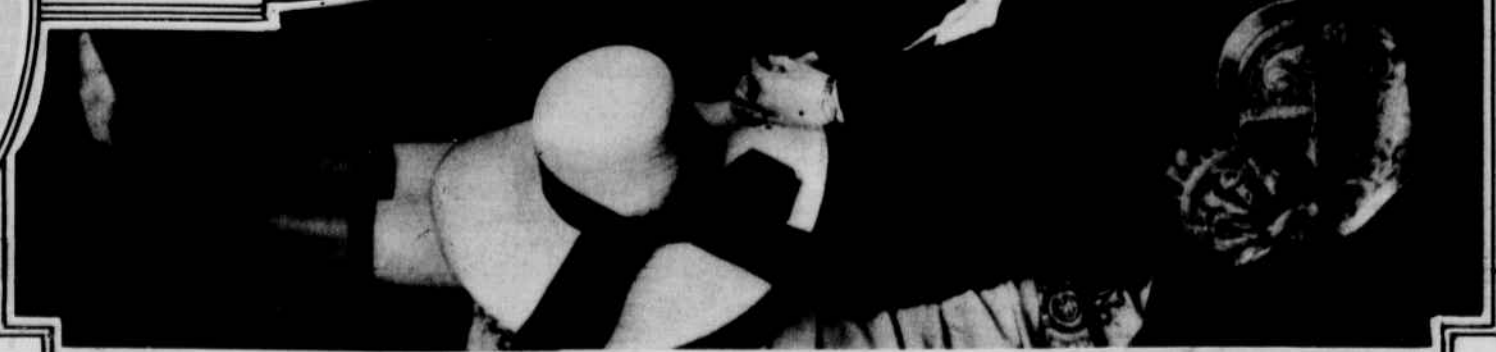

Miss Virginia Futrelle, a feature of the Hippodrome's big spectacle, "Better Times."

Miss Alexandra Carlisle, in "Fools Errant," at Maxine Elliott's.

Miss Clare Freeman in a new type of revue at the Park Music Hall.

Miss Mary Milburn, in "Molly Darling," the dainty musical comedy at the Liberty.